SPOT THE FORMAT FRAUD

This update addresses a zero-day vulnerability that has been actively exploited in our industry.

Our system indicates that your workstation has not yet received this mandatory patch. You must install the update immediately.

Failure to comply within the next 4 hours will result in your network access being automatically revoked to contain the threat.

Scammers copy-and-paste AI writing to make their phony documents look real. Can you tell which four phrases are out of place?
