CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas – Sixty-four graduates from the University Preparatory High School program (UPHS) will participate in a cording ceremony on Friday, May 20, from 6:30-7:30 p.m. at the Warren Theatre, located in the Center for the Arts at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi.

This will be the second group of students to graduate from the University Preparatory High School program, a collaboration between Flour Bluff Independent School District and Texas A&M-Corpus Christi. During the ceremony, the students will receive their cords, which will become part of their graduation regalia.

The cording ceremony is a formal recognition of the UPHS seniors, their families, friends, faculty and community members that supported them through the program. Thirty-eight percent of the graduating cohort plan to attend Texas A&M-Corpus Christi.
