The "Be The Match" event was a huge success, and, in the two-day event, we were able to register 379 new possible matches for blood cancer patients (179 registrants above Be The Match's goal)! It was truly an honor to see our students be so charitable with their time and willingness to help someone in need! The CONHS is looking forward to hosting "Be The Match" on campus next year during Waves of Welcome.

CONHS STUDENT HIGHLIGHTS

CONHS Simulation Lab – ABSN Injection Lab

It's only the second week of the semester, and the ABSN students have already conquered this week's lesson on injections.

CONHS Simulation Lab – Eline Students

Assistant Clinical Professor, Pamela Ortiz, met with the Eline Fundamental nursing students via Zoom to discuss and review safe medication administration.

SEPTEMBER 5, 2022

CONHS STUDENT HIGHLIGHTS

CONHS Simulation Lab – Fundamentals Lab

Assistant Clinical Professor, Leigh Shaver's first semester students practice patient mobility and care. They love this hands-on learning!

First-semester nursing students were introduced to vital signs in their fundamentals lab. Students had the opportunity to practice with one another while familiarizing themselves with how to communicate with their patients when performing this skill effectively.

Congratulations to CONHS Graduate 2LT Bradley Butcher!

Second Lieutenant Bradley Butcher was born in Rowlett, Texas and raised in Greenville, Texas. He graduated in May 2018 from Greenville High School in Greenville, Texas. While enrolled in ROTC, 2LT Butcher participated in the Norwegian ruck march and color guard. He held various leadership and staff roles ranging from squad leader to Battalion S1. 2LT Butcher is graduating with a bachelor's degree in nursing. He has been branched. He will report to Fort Sam Houston to attend a nursing basic officer leadership course.

At our first SNA Meeting of this semester we had over 150 students in attendance. Collectively, we welcomed a group of wonderful women from the Christus Spohn System! In attendance, we had Laura Garcia – CON at Spohn South, Beth Wood – Program Manager for Talent Acquisition, Annalyn Olbes – ADON of MedSurg at Spohn Shoreline, Veronica Morales – Clinical Director of MedSurg at Spohn South, and Jayne Knoll – Clinical Director of ED at Spohn South. They spoke to us about the various career opportunities offered through Spohn, how they each got in their respective leadership positions, and offered wonderful advice for our future nurses. We were also joined by Stefani Schomaker from Career Services, as well as Lisa Snell and Ashley Dominguez from the Simulation and Clinical Learning Center on campus. We are off to great start for this semester and we wish all of the students in the CONHS, nursing or not, an amazing semester! – Megan Barrera, SNA President.
