CONHS Nursing Students completed the Community Health Nursing Clinical Rotation in Costa Rica. Students taught health education topics to prevent common diseases, performed health screenings on 80 high school students and applied fluoride varnish, donated by DMC’s Dental Hygiene Program, to all the 7th and 8th graders in the rural community of San Juan. They visited families’ homes to assess needs and provide nursing interventions. Most importantly they developed their cultural, environmental and professional awareness that they will carry into their careers as Islander Nurses.
Dr. Dixie Andelman DNP, FNP-C, BC-ADM was asked and accepted the honor to be on the 2023 Credentialing Oversight Committee for the Association of Diabetes Care & Education Specialists (ADCES). The Committee writes and revises questions for the Board Certification-Advanced Diabetes Management (BC-ADM) credentialing exam. The BC-ADM signifies advanced expertise in the diabetes specialty for healthcare professionals such as Nurse Practitioners, Physicians, Physician Assistants, Pharmacists and Registered Dietitians.

Community Course students participate in home health visit with their patient, played by Assistant Clinical Professor Megan Markowsky. During this visit, students are encouraged to assess the patient's postpartum recovery, assess the home for safety concerns, evaluate the need for social or home assistance, and assess possible teaching needs.

Multi-patient simulations are well underway in Islander Regional Hospital. Both the ABSN and traditional students have been participating in high-fidelity simulations as part of their final semester.
Students in "The Right Start Summer Camp" visited the SCLC for an exciting morning of educational sessions. All 125 students, ages 9-16, enjoyed participating in various activities throughout the lab. A special thank you to our fantastic SNA volunteers for helping make this happen and for their willingness to share their stories and answer questions for these eager students.
