

C. College of Science Committees and Councils

- College of Science Chairs/Directors Council

Purpose or Function: This council is charged with assisting the dean in strategic and operational planning and in making administrative decisions.

Membership: The dean; the associate deans; the chairs of the Departments of Life Sciences, Mathematics and Statistics, and Physical and Environmental Sciences; the coordinators of Ph.D. programs; and the directors of the Center for Coastal Studies, Center for Water Supply Studies, and Conrad Blucher Institute for Surveying and Science.

Selection: By virtue of the administrative position.

Term of Service: Not applicable.

Duties Begin: New members assume this duty upon assuming the administrative position.

Chair: Dean of the college.

- College of Science Steering Committee

Purpose or Function: The committee advises the dean on issues at the dean's request. The committee also serves as an advisory group to the dean and brings to the dean's attention matters concerning college operation as brought up by the faculty of the college.

Membership: The committee will consist of eight members. All full-time faculty members (e.g., tenure-line, professional track, research track, clinical track and instructors) are eligible to serve. Each department shall elect one member and three members shall be appointed by the dean.

Selection: Elected by the departments and appointed by the dean.

Term of Service: Three years, staggered terms.

Duties Begin: New members assume their duties on September 1 of the year in which they are elected or appointed.

Chair: Associate dean for academic affairs.

- College of Science Awards and Scholarship Committee

Purpose or Function: Works in concurrence with the Faculty Senate's procedure for nominating faculty for various university awards. The committee also selects awardees for graduate and undergraduate scholarships and other related competitive awards in the college.

Membership: The committee consists of five members. All full-time faculty and staff are eligible to serve on the committee.

Selection: One member is appointed by the chair of each department.

Term of Service: Two years, staggered terms.

Duties Begin: New members assume their duties on September 1 of the year in which they are appointed.

Chair: Elected by the committee.

- College of Science Curriculum Committee

Purpose or Function: The committee will establish regular meeting times and will review and recommend to the dean on new degrees, minors, certificate programs, and distance education programs; changes to existing degrees, minors, certificate programs, and distance education programs; and new courses to be introduced to the catalog. The programs and/or departments vote and submit requested additions, updates and/or changes to curriculum and results of voting to the College Curriculum Committee. The committee reviews proposals for complementarity, quality, integrity, academic rigor, purpose, and support of the university's mission. The committee consults the proposal originators as needed, votes and routes voting results and recommendations as appropriate. The agenda will be posted ahead of time to the college and meetings are open to all college faculty and administrators.

Membership: The committee consists of seven members. Six voting members are representatives from the departments, and the associate dean for academic affairs is an ex officio (non-voting) member. All tenured, tenure-track, professional track, clinical track and instructors are eligible to serve on the committee. The committee also consults with research- track and adjunct faculty on specific curriculum matters as appropriate.

Selection: Two members are elected by each department. All elected members must have at least three years of experience at TAMU-CC. At least one member from each department must have graduate faculty status. The associate dean for academic affairs is an ex officio non-voting member. Terms of Service: For voting members—two years, staggered terms within departments; for associate dean— not applicable.

Duties Begin: New members assume their duties on September 1 of the year in which they are elected. The associate dean assumes this duty upon becoming associate dean.

Chair: Associate dean for academic affairs

Relevant University Procedures: 11.10.99.C0.01 (paragraph 3.3), 11.10.99.C0.02 (paragraph 3.3), 11.10.99.C0.03 (paragraph 3.3), and 11.10.99.C0.04 (paragraph 3.3).

- College of Science Distinguished Lecturers Selection Committee

Purpose or Function: The committee will establish regular meeting times and will review and recommend to the dean on potential speakers to invite to campus for the College Distinguished Lecturer Series.

Membership: The committee consists of one faculty representing each PhD program in the college. All faculty members of the PhD programs are eligible to serve on the committee.

Selection: Nominated by the department chairs with approval by the dean.

Term of Service: Two years, staggered terms.

Duties Begin: New members assume their duties on September 1 of the year in which they are appointed.

Chair: Appointed by the dean.

- College of Science Library Committee

Purpose or Function: Monitors the acquisition of library resources relevant to the needs of the college's faculty and students. The committee also coordinates the division of library funds among the academic and research units within the college.

Membership: The committee consists of three members. One member of this committee will be recommended to the Faculty Senate as the college representative to serve on the University Library Committee. All tenured, tenure-track, professional track, research track, clinical track and instructors are eligible to serve on the committee. The committee also consults with adjunct faculty as appropriate.

Selection: One member is elected by each department.

Term of Service: Three years, staggered terms.

Duties Begin: New members assume their duties on September 1 of the year in which they are elected. Chair: Elected by the committee.

- College of Science Library Liaisons

Purpose or Function: Although not a committee per se, these liaisons work with the Bell Library Acquisitions Department and with faculty of individual programs to coordinate acquisitions requests for books and media from annual budget allocations, also on university library de-acquisition efforts. Membership: The committee consists of one representative for each academic program. One person may serve as a liaison for multiple academic programs.

Selection: Appointed by the chair of the department in which a program is administered.

Terms of Service: One year.

Duties Begin: New members assume their duties on September 1 of the year in which they are appointed.

Chair: Not applicable

- College of Science Emeritus Committee

Purpose or Function: Evaluates faculty applications for emeritus status and makes recommendations to the dean.

Membership: The committee consists of one senior faculty members from each department and two dean's appointees. Department chairs and associate deans shall not serve on the committee.

Selection: Appointed by the chair of the department; the dean appoints two additional committee members

Terms of Service: Three years

Duties Begin: New members assume their duties on September 1 of the year in which they are elected or appointed.

Chair: Elected by the committee.

- College of Science Research Enhancement Committee

Purpose or Function: This college-level committee is responsible for receiving and evaluating grant proposals and recommending college-level grant awards from research enhancement program funds. The committee's policies and award procedures must be consistent with the eligibility and award selection criteria in the relevant university procedure. A copy of the College of Science rule must be filed with the associate vice president for planning and institutional effectiveness.

Membership: The committee consists of four members. Two members of this committee also serve as College of Science representatives on the University Research Enhancement Committee, which also has two-year, staggered terms for the college representatives. All tenured, tenure-track and research track faculty are eligible to serve on the committee. Committee members are not eligible to apply for research enhancement grants. The committee also consults with professional track and clinical track faculty as appropriate.

Selection: One member is elected by each department.

Terms of Service: Two years, staggered terms.

Duties Begin: New members assume their duties on September 1 of the year in which they are elected.

Chair: Elected by the committee.

Relevant University Procedure: 15.01.01.C0.01

- College of Science Teaching Assistant Assignment Committee

Purpose or Function: The committee oversees assignment of graduate students to fill Teaching Assistant (TA) positions. A committee member works with faculty in his or her department to determine TA needs and assign students to meet these needs. The chair of the committee prepares letters of appointment for M.S. and Ph.D. students who are awarded TA positions. These letters are sent to the Dean's Office for review and signature, and then to students.

Membership: The committee consists of six members. Five members are representatives from the departments, and the chair of the committee is the sixth member. All full-time faculty who has teaching duties are eligible to serve on the committee.

Selection: The appropriate chair appoints one member to represent each department. The Associate Dean of Academic Affairs serves as chair.

Terms of Service: For representatives – two (2) years, staggered terms; for chair – the term of service as Associate Dean of Academic Affairs.

Duties Begin: New members assume their duties on September 1 of the year in which they are elected or appointed.

Chair: Assumes this duty upon appointment by the Dean.

- College of Science Grade Appeal Committee

Purpose or Function: The committee advises the associate dean in determining the facts of grade appeal cases and attempt to reach a fair and appropriate resolution to the complains. Membership: The appointment of CGAC membership is left to the Departments The hearing panel will consist of three (3) faculty members, one of whom will serve as chair, and two (2) students. To allow for replacement of committee members unable to serve, or substitutions for any member of the committee who may have a conflict of interest or be in any way involved in a particular case, members of this committee will be chosen from a larger “central pool.

Selection: Appointed by the department chair

Terms of Service: One year.

Duties Begin: New members assume their duties on September 1 of the year in which they are elected or appointed.

Chair: Associate dean for academic affairs.

- College of Science Promotion and Tenure Committee

Purpose or Function: Evaluates faculty applications for promotion and tenure and makes recommendations to the dean.

Membership: The committee consists of five tenured (full) professors. Department chairs and associate deans shall not serve on the committee.

Selection: Each department elects one tenured (full) professor to the committee by vote of the tenured and tenure-track faculty; the dean appoints two additional committee members.

Terms of Service: For elected members—two years, staggered terms; for dean's appointee—one year.

Duties Begin: New members assume their duties on September 1 of the year in which they are elected or appointed.

Chair: Elected by the committee.

- College of Science Post-Tenure Review Committee

Purpose or Function: Evaluates faculty applications for promotion and tenure and makes recommendations to the dean.

Membership: The committee consists of five tenured full professors. Department chairs and associate deans shall not serve on the committee.

Selection: Each department elects one tenured full professor to the committee by vote of the tenured and tenure-track faculty; the dean appoints two additional committee member.

Terms of Service: For elected members—one year; for dean's appointee—two years.

Duties Begin: New members assume their duties on September 1 of the year in which they are elected or appointed.

Chair: Elected by the committee.

- College of Science Ad Hoc Committees

Ad hoc committees are appointed from time to time by the dean, the chairs/director's council or the college committees to address specific issues or to perform specific tasks as given by the dean or given to respective council/committees.